

Ephesians Final Exam

Who wrote Ephesians and why?

What is the main point of Ephesians?

How important was Ephesus in the ancient world?

Ephesus was about _____ times bigger than Harrisburg.
At 247,597, Jersey City N.J. is (pick one) bigger, same size as, smaller than Ephesus' population in Paul's day.

What temple was there? Why was it significant?

Paul compares that temple to another. What is it? Which is still standing? Which is more magnificent?

Demonic forces were an every day occurrence in Ephesus. Are they today? If so, how so?

What's the best way to fight demonic forces, if they exist? If you think they don't exist, skip to the next question.

What's the difference between orthodoxy and orthopraxy? Where do we see it in Paul's letter to Ephesus?

Paul talks about these things. Rate them with 1 as most important today, 11 least important concepts in today's world:

the Trinity

the mystery revealed to the heavens

heavenly realms

the church

the superiority of Christ over all powers

being dead to sin and alive to Christ

living carefully

standing firm

call to unity

a different standard of living than before

relationships

How is Paul telling us to live?

List 5 things we learn about God.
God...